Dear General Eisenhower:

When we met a few weeks ago in the course of discussing the negotiations leading up to the fixing of the zonal and sector arrangements in Germany and Berlin, I mentioned a publication by Philip E. Mosely, well-known historian on Soviet matters. Mosely, as you will recall, had a part in these negotiations and has written extensively about them. These writings he has pulled together in the enclosed book which he sent to me for you on "The Kremlin and World Politics" beginning on page 131, chapter 5, and following through the succeeding chapters.

This is the most detailed historical presentation I know of on the subject and I thought you might be interested in it. I cannot vouch for its complete accuracy, but I believe that Mosely is a careful scholar.

Respectfully,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

P. S. You possibly knew Mosely at Columbia or at the Council on Foreign Relations where he is now director of Studies.
